Sound file categories

If one or more of the users with access to Services->Audio should not see all your Sound file categories (and sound files in these categories), you can create a filter containing selected Sound file categories and assign the filter to the relevant users. A user with such a filter assigned will only see sound files in the defined categories in the Sound file library, and only sound file modules now using a sound file in the categories in the filter.