Solution is closed, but should be open

If you call your solution and get a closed message even if the solution should be open, it's likely that your opening hours are set incorrect.

Check your time module under Services - Time in the administration portal and see if the opening hours are set up correct.